15/23 CHAIRMAN'S REPORT:

W. Coombes reported that the year had passed quickly and had been a successful year with the erection of the Speed Monitor, reduction in Clay Lorry movements and a successful meeting with DCC and the Road Contractors regarding the A382 works.

W. Coombes was sorry that he had not been able to fully thank John Martin for all the years he was on the Parish Council and that it was a shame that he had to step down due to ill health. John had represented the Parish well in TV interviews with David Bellamy and John Craven and a letter to John Prescott. All present expressed their gratitude to John.

W. Coombes thanked A. Gale for cutting the village field, loan of the mower, erection of the village benches and his professional presentation of the accounts.

He also thanked P. Adams for the erection of the Speed Sign, Seat Plaques and his work as Clerk writing the Minutes and letters to TDC and DCC.
